

Eva C. Saulnier

ATTORNEY AT LAW

ecs@zashinlaw.com | 216-480-3001

Eva joined Zashin Law in 2021. Her practice encompasses all aspects of domestic relations such as divorce, dissolution, property division, child and spousal support, and parental rights and responsibilities.

A French national with law degrees from both the United States and France, Eva has a particular interest in all international family law issues, specifically custody matters implicating the 1980 Hague Convention on the Civil Aspects of International Child Abduction.

Her practice includes the following areas:

- Dividing complex marital estates, including investment properties, business interests, unusual investments, complicated retirement plans, and separate property issues;
- Evaluating business and partnership interests for division in divorce;
- Researching and analyzing records to identify misappropriated or hidden marital assets;
- Drafting, interpreting, and evaluating the enforceability of prenuptial agreements;
- Crafting tailored temporary and permanent spousal and child support plans;
- Allocating parental rights and responsibilities;
- Issues concerning parental relocation;
- Custody matters involving psychological expert testimony;
- Domestic violence matters; and
- Handling post-decree issues of enforcement and non-disclosed or omitted assets.

Outside of the office, Eva spends her time playing golf with her husband. She was a division 1 student-athlete in college and a member of the French National Golf team. She is also a classically trained harpsichordist, having studied at le Conservatoire Francis Poulenc in Tours, France and remains a classical music enthusiast.
